STATE CONVENTION.

OFFICIAL REPORTS.

MR. R. SUTTON, CHIEF REPORTER.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1849.

Proceedings Continued.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

On the motion of Mr. CLARK, the convention resolved itself into committee of the whole, Mr. MCKEEWARDY in the chair, and proceeded to the consideration of the report of the committee on legislative department.

The report was read at length, and it was afterwards taken up by sections.

The first section was read and adopted without any opposition, as follows:

Sec. 1. The legislative power shall be vested in a house of representatives and a senate, which together shall be styled the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky.

The second section was as follows:

Sec. 2. The members of the house of representatives shall continue in service for the term of two years, from the day of the general election.

Mr. CLARK. To this there is objection, because it is to be held in two years, and not in three.

Mr. MCKEEWARDY. The amendment will be agreed to, as it is necessary to have a house of representatives to be chosen on Monday, and it is to be held in two years.

Mr. TALBOT. I move to have the election on the Sabbath.

Mr. CLARK. I move to have the election on the Sabbath.

The motion was agreed to, and the section was adopted.

This place is unsurpassed for its healthy atmosphere, and remaining scenery, and is unquestionably one of the most eligible locations for a Literary Institution in the United States. The grounds have been greatly improved and ornamented during the last few years, and the buildings, consisting of a large margin of the Licking River, immediately in the rear of the buildings, will be reserved for Military Exercises.

The removal will be made immediately after Christmas, and the School opened at that place.

On the 7th day of January, 1850.

The Academic year extends from the first Monday of September to the first Monday in June, every year.

Two hundred and seventy-five Cadets, from eight to fifteen years of age, will be admitted into this institution from time to time, and will be admitted into the classrooms, and into the various departments of learning.
